“The only reason you don’t choose Meggan as your celebrant is because she’s already booked. And if that is the case I recommend changing your wedding date.”

Meet Meggan

If you're looking for a warm, personable Marriage Celebrant who will keep your guests fully engaged - listening, laughing, maybe even brushing a tear from their eye, and loving every moment of your ceremony ... I may just be what you're looking for!

As a yoga-loving, storytelling Sydney Marriage Celebrant, I help couples just like you have a wedding ceremony full of meaning, laughter, tears and connection.

Drawing on 24 years' experience as an internationally published writer, my couples love that their wedding ceremony won't be generic, long or boring.

Over 15 years as a wedding celebrant, I've helped hundreds of couples feel relaxed, confident and totally at ease on their wedding day.

Ceremonies That Move People

1. Your Relationship Questionnaire
You each complete a carefully designed questionnaire which draws out your dynamic, your history, and moments that matter most.
This enables me to get to know you.

2. Shaping Your Story
From there, I shape your answers into a ceremony that reflects you.
This is where your relationship comes to life through the magic of storytelling. Here we're creating an experience that will draw your guests in and give them a glimpse into who you are - an opportunity to get to know and love you even more.

3. A Collaborative Process
This is a collaborative process. Once I've written the first draft of your ceremony, you review it. And we keep refining it until you feel genuinely excited about sharing it with your guests.

4. Your Ultimate Ceremony Experience
You get the ultimate ceremony experience. One where your guests walk away feeling uplifted, and grateful to have been part of something so special and memorable.

5. Sets the Tone for the Entire Day
An outstanding ceremony anchors your day and elevates everything that follows. The father of the bride approached me after the ceremony, thanking me for "making the entire day an absolute success." He knew everything that followed would land exactly as it should.

Vows That Wow

Most couples tell me how worried they are about their vows not matching their partner's in depth, tone or length.

That's where I come in.

How It Works
As an internationally published writer, I guide you through a clear, structured vow-writing process so your vows are genuinely meaningful, sound like you & are of equal weight to each other.

7 Step Vow Guide & Video
You receive a short video & vow journal with 7 easy steps, taking you through how to write beautiful, well-shaped vows.

Review & Refine
You send me your first draft. I review both sets of vows together & then workshop them with each of you individually to ensure they're of similar weight, so neither of you leaves your ceremony feeling you've over or under delivered.

The Final Polish
We refine as many times as we need to until they feel polished, natural, & easy to read out loud.

Preparing For The Day
I guide you on how to deliver your vows on the day – so you feel calm, confident & totally at ease. I print your vows beautifully and clearly, and display them in a white keepsake book that looks great in your wedding photos. This is what you read from on the day.

Why this matters
Your vows are the heart of your ceremony. They're a powerful acknowledgement of your love and of the promises that set the tone for your marriage. So it's important to get them right.

I will make sure you feel proud of what you've written.
